ELDORA PARK CHOSEN AS PLACE FOR PICNIC

School Board Reconsiders Action to Hold Outing in Pines

DIFFICULTY REMOVED

Park Company Will Take Care of Children Going to and Coming From Park

Eldora Park is to be the scene of the annual school picnic which will be held on June 3. A change from the former plans of the school board to hold the picnic in the Pines and at the Charleroi baseball grounds was effected at a meeting of the board Thursday night, as a compliment to the children and in recognition of the superior attractions of the amusement park.

Tom P. Sloan, manager of Eldora Park appeared before the board to present a plan for the holding of the picnic at Eldora and to offer suggestions as to the methods of caring for the children. As a result the matter of transportation will be much differently handled from the way in which it has been in former years.

Mr. Sloan made the proposition that inasmuch as there had been some objection among the teachers to looking after children in going to and from the park that the park company employ men to do this work. The idea was gladly taken up by the members of the board as a means out of a difficulty. The teachers will be asked to look after the children only until they get to the cars. After that the park company will take care of them. As usual a certain number of free tickets will be given each child.

There will be a program of sports carried out at the park. I. R. Eagye, R. C. Mountsier and J. M. Hill was appointed the picnic committee from the school board. The three high school teachers, S. R. Grim, W. L. Lorimer and Clyde Haines will compose the sports committee.

The picnic will occur the day after high school commencement day and will in reality be the closing day of school.

Notice

I have sold my store business on Crest avenue to Matthew and Grace Gelder, who will continue the business at the same stand. All bills contracted previously to May 1 are payable to the new firm, who will pay all debts now owing. I thank my former patrons for their patronage, and ask a continuation of the same for the new firm which assumed charge May 1.

Pioneer of Town Dies

Ferdinand Estenfelder Succumbs to Attack of Heart Trouble

Ferdinand Estenfelder, aged 58 years, who has been a resident of Charleroi since the earliest history of the town, died at 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening at his home on Meadow avenue. His wife, one son, Frederick, four daughters, Misses Anna, Katherine, Marie and Johanna at home and Mrs. A. A. McDonald a daughter at Monongahela survive. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon with services at 1:30 o'clock at St. Jerome's Catholic church. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Mr. Estenfelder has been ill for some weeks. His death was directly due to heart trouble. He was an insurance agent and was well known along the Monongahela valley. He was a member of the German Mutual Beneficial Association, the Monessen Turn Verein and the Loyal Order of the Moose at Fredericktown.

SERVICES HELD BY TEMPLARS

Ascension Day Observed by McKean Commandery No. 80

REV. HACKETT PREACHES

Ascension Day services were held Thursday evening by McKean Commandery, No. 80 Knights Templar. Following a parade over the principal streets the uniformed and plumed knights listened to a sermon by Rev. J. T. Hackett at the First Presbyterian church.

The parade started at the Masonic hall on the corner of Fifth street. Its start was signalized by the beautiful strains of the Templar Hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers" rendered by a band. Dr. Edwin McKay was the chief marshal.

The impressive Templar program for Ascension day was carried out at the church. The First Presbyterian choir furnished the special music for the occasion. Solemnity was added to the occasion by the beautiful Ascension day psalm and collect read by the knights. The Templar Hymn was sung.

Rev. Hackett's subject of discussion was "As Far as Bethany." He showed the educational idea of life in leading up to the events of the resurrection of the Savior. Speaking of the great hope of the despoiled, he referred to the Ascension as the complementary part of the resurrection.

The Ascension day service drew a large crowd to the church. The observance is one that the Knight Templar commanderies lay particular spend a few weeks with friends and

BENEFIT GAME ADDS TO PLAYGROUNDS FUND

Money Cleared Will Amount to Approximately $150--Playgrounds Auxiliary Thanks People For Their Help

Approximately $150 it is believed will be realized for the Charleroi playgrounds through the benefit baseball game played Thursday by the Charleroi Independents and the Indianapolis Federal league team. The money will be devoted to putting the playgrounds in shape and to the paying of help and instructors.

President J. B. Schafer of the Playgrounds Auxiliary stated this morning that not all the money had been received yet for the sale of tickets. A more complete report will be made later.

There were it is estimated close to 2,000 people at the game. Among these were many school children. The children on the whole were admitted free, because it was their benefit. As a result grand stand was crowded with tiny femininity and youthful masculinity, who came with their parents.

The attraction was arranged by Mr. Schafer and the Playgrounds Auxiliary and interest was worked up by them.

The Auxiliary this morning expressed a vote of thanks to everyone who in any way helped to make the affair a success, to the managers of the two baseball teams and the players themselves particularly. The executive committee of the Playgrounds Auxiliary consists of the officers as follows: President John B. Schafer; vice president, J. D. Berryman; secretary, George W. Might; treasurer, E. F. Krahmer.

Theives Commit Bold Daylight Robbery in Monessen, a Stone's Throw From Police Station--$75 is Secured

Within a stone's throw of the police station, in broad daylight, three men entered the music store of Keefe & Robins in Monessen Thursday afternoon and after beating Mrs. W. S. Robins unconscious, placed her body behind a piano, forced open a safe and escaped with $75. Mrs. Robins was taking charge of the store during the absence of her husband.

One of the men walked to the counter, while the other two stood guard at the door. At a signal given by one of the men at the door, the man at the counter quickly turned and before the woman could scream, struck her, knocking her unconscious. The men then placed her body behind the piano, opened the safe and secured the money. Later a customer who entered the store discovered a foot sticking out from behind a piano. He found Mrs. Robins, still unconscious. A doctor revived her.

The police were notified.

Is Given Surprise Previous to Leaving for Somerset Township

Wednesday of this week closed the seventh consecutive term of school, conducted by Professor J. Leslie Roberts at Speers and if the unanimous voice of the people there counts for anything, he will be asked to accept the position again next fall. The achievements attained by Prof. Roberts during his administration are remarkable and the people are as a unit in their expressions of hope that he may see his way clear to return for the next term of school.

The professor will leave today for Somerset, where his wife and children preceded him a few weeks ago, but if he expected to "make his get away" unnoticed he was certainly disappointed. He has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Kittle since the departure of his family and Mr. Kittle planned to give him a little surprise before he packed his grip. Invitations were quietly sent around the town and as a result "the mob" tramped out to the Kittle homestead Tuesday evening and without the formality of knocking, walked in upon the professor, who looked as though

Benefit Baseball Game Goes to Federal League Organization

With a lineup that it is believed will in many respects be similar to that which will face the Pittsburgh Philinos next Tuesday, the Indianapolis Federals had no trouble whatever defeating the Charleroi Independents Thursday afternoon in a game for the benefit of the Charleroi playgrounds.

The event was characterized in several different ways. In the beginning Manager Bill Phillips of the Indianapolis team and Manager Mathers of the Charleroi team were presented with a bat apiece by their admirers here. Master Hardy Albright, the son of Chief of Police C. W. Albright made the presentation, the two managers being called to the plate to receive the ribbon-tied Louisville Sluggers.

Three pitchers performed for the Federals, Reis, Bair and Taylor. Reis twirled hitless ball for three innings, only ten men facing him. Bair complained of a little soreness and stiffness when he went in the box and found a little difficulty acquiring control. Before his muscles were

Labor Day Observed

Eleven Socialist Branches Represented at Big Gathering in Charleroi

International Labor Day was observed by eleven Socialist branches of the Monongahela valley in Charleroi Thursday evening. A parade was a feature. It was followed by speaking at Turner Hall. Speaking in turn was followed by dancing that lasted until 1 o'clock this morning.

With about 1,000 men in line the parade was over Lincoln avenue from Fifth street to Second, down Second to Fallowfield avenue, thence down Fallowfield to Ninth street, thence to McKean a venue, and up McKean to Turner Hall.

Prof. Frank Midney, late of the faculty of Chicago University, was the chief speaker and enthused his audience by his excellent exposition of argument in favor of the cause referred to as the people's cause. Leroy Bruce of Allentown was the chairman of the meeting. Local speakers gave short talks. People were here from Brownsville to Riverview.

Phillips Players to Get Photographs Taken in New Duds

THREE MEN ARE LET GO

New uniforms arrived today for Bill Phillips Indianapolis Federals and will be worn for the first time on Saturday afternoon when the team appears against the Charleroi Independents. Before the game starts a group photograph of the players will be taken in their new uniforms.

This morning the team worked out at batting and fielding practice at the ball ground, and this afternoon a regular-yanigan game is being played. Phillips stated that he would decide upon his lineup and batting order for his opening game after Saturday.

Four clubs of the new "big" league, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Covington—which is Cincinnati—and Chicago secured their uniforms through a Springfield, Mass., sporting goods concern simply through the adoption of their ball. St. Louis and Pittsburgh had other plans for securing of their uniforms and did not get the benefit of the separate arrangement.

Three men who had been training with Phillips departed Thursday for Cleveland, to join the team of that city. They were A. Miller, an outfielder, and H. Miller, a pitcher of Pittsburgh and Kirsch a pitcher who

Coroner Heffran Arranging for Mine Disaster Investigation

FIRE BOSS IS MISSING

Harry Vincent Claimed by Gorie Stokes, Dilly Rider to Still be in Workings

Monday, May 12, has been fixed as the time for the inquest into the deaths of the miners killed in the Cincinnati mine disaster last week. The hearing will be begun at 10 o'clock and the place will be Monongahela probably the Eagle's hall.

It is understood that it will not be disputed that the explosion at the Cincinnati mine at Courtney a week ago, when 96 lives—probably more—were snuffed out, was due to gas. Just where the explosion occurred in the mine and what set off the gas is not given out.

Coroner James T. Heffran was at his office Thursday. For two days he with District Attorney R. G. Miller and others has been in the ill-fated mine and made a thorough inspection of the workings.

Gorie Stokes, the dilly rider, who rode the dilly all through the rescue work at the Cincinnati mine, was in Monongahela Thursday and reported that Harry Vincent of VanVoorhis, a well known fire boss was missing.

Vincent was employed at the mine and was near the scene of the disaster. A visit to his room disclosed the fact that he has not been seen since the great calamity. Vincent is known to have worked on 20 entry where the heaviest of the explosion occurred.

S. T. Holmes of Finleyville, the aged colored man, who escaped from the ill fated mine and who is credited with saving the lives of about 30 miners, but whose son is reported among the missing was granted permission by the coal company to enter the mine in search of his son Howard. Mr. Holmes claims to know this mine well, having worked there for 22 years.

The work of cleaning up the mine is progressing rapidly and it is thought will be in shape to resume operations in a short time.

formerly played with East Liverpool. Miller showed particularly good form when he was here.

Swartling, the first baseman who signed with Phillips, but who was detained from reporting on account of the critical illness of his father in Pittsburgh, has been doing daily training work at home, and it is stated is in shape to get in the game at any time. With Swartling on hands for first base infield changes and perhaps outfield changes will be decided upon. Tiemyer, who has been stationed at the first sack will be the man shifted to another position. He is good anywhere and looks to be the hardest hitter on the team.

PLAIN BUSINESS

By issuing a mandate compelling banks in which United States funds are deposited to pay two per cent interest Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has secured an addition to the government revenues of approximately a million and a half of dollars. His action is simply that of any business man who would not think for a moment of permitting a big fund of idle capital to remain unproductive. This money is composed of the revenue receipts of the government, which accumulates and is deposited in various national banks.
The government could keep this money in the vaults of the treasury at Washington but it is better that it should be deposited in banks, which are required to guarantee the safety of the deposits, in order that it may be used in the business of the country until needed by the government in the payment of the ordinary expenditures.

His plan of depositing the money was all right and proper, but in the past the government catered to special interests by giving banks these of this money for nothing. The banks could loan this money for six per cent, or at high rates of interest for call loans in stock gambling deals in Wall street, and reap a big profit by special favors of the government.
It was good public policy to not permit the surplus government funds to lie idle, but it was bad business for the government not to exact any recompense from the banks specially favored with the use of the government funds with which they could make a big profit. Secretary Mc-Adoo has not only exacted a just recompense for the use of the government money, but he will deposit a still greater amount in the banks, taking approved local securities, previous administrations would not accept.

It is becoming more and more apparent every day that all that is necessary for better government is simple honesty and business sense.

The people are paying entirely too travagant and has been expended too

ON THE JOB.

By using his influence to head off a movement to fix a date for adjournment before any of the important measures before the legislature are enacted, Governor Tener has demonstrated that he is on the job in the interests of the people of the commonwealth. The governor has virtually pledged certain measures that are essential to the well-being of the public, and the attempt to hold up these measures is decidedly hostile not only to the administration, but to public policy in general.

For many years constructive legislation has been blocked in the state legislature by simply delaying measures designed to benefit the people, fixing a date for adjournment, and then letting the bills die in committee or emasculating them after it is too late to make corrections. This is the game that the senate is trying to work on the measures that Governor Tener is insistent on passing, but the latter serves notice that he will not stand for any trickery. He will use every effort to hold the legislature in session until the measures he has pledged are passed and the indications are that he will have enough following to maintain his position.

PICKED UP IN PASSING SOCIETY AND PERSONAL

The May American Magazine contains a story by Henry Wallace Phillips in which a Spanish Don is made to speak as follows:

"Why can it be that he, this automobile man shall push me from before him with a tootle? Is he Horn of Jericho? No, hombre! He is not!
He is merely the horn of too much plenty—the cornucopia—and I think why it is that he must rush through the air at sixty kilometer to the hour is because he has the top of the head empty, and must push his face through the wind very fast to ventilate the cavity.

"Does he care who he kills? No!
Maybe it is a poor woman with the washing. Maybe it is a strong man with shove and pickle, trying to earn his daily bread. Maybe it is anybody.
What is it? 'Honk! Honk! Whoop-
-o-o!' and these persons are in heaven!—we shall hope. He makes death ridiculous, and he makes life more ridiculous and most ridiculous, of all he makes himself. One might say this is prejudice. So perhaps, it is, but what shall a man live for if not for his prejudice?"

Fred C. Kelley, in his "Stories of Statesmen," in the Pittsburgh Dispatch, says that Col. T. Roosevelt possesses a dormant and unheralded talent as an imitator. As he and his party were headed for New York toward the close of the campaign last fall his nephew, George Roosevelt, remarked that he would be glad to get back to the little old town in time to see the opening of the Metropolitan Opera House for the season.

The colonel shook his head. "Mrs.
Roosevelt persuades me to go to grand opera about once a year," he remarked, "and I might like it all right if it didn't take them so long to say or do anything. Somebody will discover that somebody is dead, and instead of simply saying that the king is dead he will say he is dehe-he-head, and he will go on saying it for 20 minutes after; which one of the women singers will take up the line and then they will both say it for a while."

And the colonel went on to imitate just how they would do it. Those who heard him declare that imitations like he can do would be worth eight bits of any vaudeville-goer's money.

he was undecided as to where this gang of "brigands" came from. The professor's natural ability, however, soon brought him to realize just what the invasion really meant, and it was then he sprang to his feet and gave a joyous welcome to the unexpected visitors.

It was not long until all were made to feel at home. The house resounded with music and laughter inter-persed with anecdotes by people who could tell them and in this way the time flew until at 10 o'clock when the surprise was turned the other way. The company was respectfully asked to leave the room, as they were wanted in another part of the house.
Wondering, they obeyed, and as they reached the large dining room they stopped, wide eyed and open mouthed at the picture that lay before them.
Two large tables weighted down with all good things to eat, the aroma of rich coffee pervading the air and a pleasant invitation from the hostess, Mrs. Kittle and her assistant, Miss Lueella Beazell to partake of these viands, came as a second surprise of the evening.

After all were seated at the tables
C. K. Chalfant arose and announced that he would like to say a few words prior to the feasting and then in his usual capable manner, explained the purpose of the visit, closing with a well deserved eulogy of the professor and presenting him on behalf of his friends with a beautiful fountain pen. The professor in acceptance, gave a pleasing and instructive talk, expressing his appreciation of the visit, and a hope that he would see them all again before long. The party as a whole was a success, the visitors did not leave until nearly midnight and if John Kittle ever had any doubts about his ability to engineer a stag party he is now justified in casting them aside.

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI.

The story of "Tigris," an elaborate criminal, was most thrillingly told in a four-part Italia film at the Coyle theatre this week and it was most distinctively the topline of the whole repertoire. "Tigris," a master criminal, with a desperate gang at his command and thoroughness of organization in crime, defies all law and order, and challenges a noted detective to run him down. The scenes are a continual series of the matching of wits between the daring criminal and the clever detective, followed by some most desperate situations in the underworld and some hairbreadth escapes. It was most sensational. Another striking feature in the Coyle's repertoire this week was "Taps," a two reel Bison, picturing the narrative of a civil war veteran, how his cowardly brother got glory, promotion and the love of a girl at his expense. Perhaps no other war picture showed such elaborate field encounters, or such actual and vigorous fighting as this one. It was a succession of what appeared to be most realistic fighting. There was also an unusual galaxy of good motion picture dramas some of them rich in humor in the regular service of the week. Following "Tigris" on Wednesday was a succession of big features each in three parts, "Budford's Hope" on Thursday, "The Black Chancellor" Friday, ending with "A Traitor to His Country" on Saturday.

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI.

One of the best vaudeville bookings of the season is on at the Palace Theatre this week, opening Thursday for the balance of the week with a matinee on Saturday. The whole three acts are clean and entertaining and of a higher type of humor than is usually seen in vaudeville. Lowell B. Drew & Co., present a most unique act. The "company" is composed of Drew and a charming young woman, who depict some exceedingly clever and amusing scenes in a drug store, where with special properties and an odd and original sketch, keep something new going during the entire performance. Lindsay and Hewett, give singing and dancing sketches, with pianologues by Miss Hewett of a unique nature. Lindsay does some grotesque dancing and the two perform cleverly and gracefully in a dual dancing act. Miss Annetta Julian, a charming and capable soubrette, sings Irish songs with a delightful and original flavor, that won the approval of the audience from the very start. Incidentally, Miss Julian showed some stunning costumes in her different songs. All through this week's repertoire is probably the best balanced bill that has been presented thus far since the opening of vaudeville at the Palace. The picture service in addition to the vaudeville is the same high grade as usual and is changed nightly.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

Starting off with two big features Monday, the Star Theatre had an unusually good repertoire this week. Monday's bill was composed of "From Sing Sing to Liberty," showing the life and experiences of a convict in the noted New York prison, and "The Man From the Outside," another three reel Reliance film. These two three reel features were highly appreciated by the audiences. "His Heroine," "Father's Finish," a split reel, with some splendid scenery of American Canyons, "Brass Buttons," a comic, were other pleasing features. A splendid Kay Bee, a civil war picture in two reels, "The Lost Dispatch," was also a feature. This was a winner, as it was produced by the 101 Ranch outfit, a fine body of trained horseman and actors. The Mutual Weekly, which showed President Wilson's inauguration, along with the latest Paris fashions and the other scenes of public events that are attracting attention, was in the repertoire. Among other leading dramas were "The Transgression of Manuel," "Sleaths at the Floral Parade," "Her Neighbor," "Jocular Winds" and "Impetuous Jim." For Saturday Manager Cowan has booked "Doll and the Devil," "The Bitter Bitten," and "Strong Revenge."

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG.

The Grand's program for the week beginning Monday afternoon, May 5, is a characteristically high and varied one. There are several European features in the roster. Among the latter is an eccentric English character comedian called Chris Richards, who is creating a considerable furor in the land of his Uncle Samuel. Mr. Richards' position among the funniest of England's funny men is assured by the absurdity of his physical actions, the nobility of his facial expressions and the cleverness of his songs.

An unusual attractive playlet, written by Una Clayton and entitled "Just Half Way," will be presented by Roland West with Allan Dinehart and Ana Hertiege interpreting it. It is a story set amid pleasant pastoral precincts overlooking the Hudson. Ben Deely, the well-known composer of popular ditties, will be aided by Marie Wayne and Emmett Briscoe in the fun of a skit called "The New Bell Boy." Playgoers will be happy to know that Hilda Hawthorne is in the bill. This dainty young woman is a ventriloquist and singing comedienne of undoubted talents. The Three Du-For Boyd, who come direct from the Alhambra, London, will show America what English dancers can do in the poetry of motion. Frank and Joe Wilson, known as Wilson Brothers, will have an act called "Go Out" which is built for laughing purposes only. The ultimate of danger is reached by the Flying Martins in their speedy act on the double trapeze. A variety of other attractions will complete the Grand's program.

DANGERS FROM GRIP

Lies in the Cough and Weak, Worn Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grip from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol our de-licious liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Crabill of Strasburg, Va., says: "Grippe left me weak, run down and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money. Piper Bros., Druggists.

ELDORA PARK CHOSEN AS PLACE FOR PICNIC

School Board Reconsiders Action to Hold Outing in Pines

DIFFICULTY REMOVED

Park Company Will Take Care of Children Going to and Coming From Park

Eldora Park is to be the scene of the annual school picnic which will be held on June 3. A change from the former plans of the school board to hold the picnic in the Pines and at the Charleroi baseball grounds was effected at a meeting of the board Thursday night, as a compliment to the children in recognition of the superior attractions of the amusement park.

Tom P. Sloan, manager of Eldora Park appeared before the board to present a plan for the holding of the picnic at Eldora and to offer suggestions as to the methods of caring for the children. As a result the matter of transportation will be much differently handled from the way in which it has been in former years.

Mr. Sloan made the proposition that inasmuch as there had been some objection among the teachers to looking after children in going to and from the park that the park company employ men to do this work. The idea was gladly taken up by the members of the board as a means out of a difficulty. The teachers will be asked to look after the children only until they get to the cars. After that the park company will take care of them. As usual a certain number of free tickets will be given each child.

There will be a program of sports carried out at the park. T. R. Eagye, R. C. Mountsier and J. M. Hill was appointed the picnic committee from the school board. The three high school teachers, S. R. Grim, W. L. Lorimer and Clyde Haines will compose the sports committee.

The picnic will occur the day after high school commencement day and will in reality be the closing day of school.

Pioneer of Town Dies

Ferdinand Estenfelder Succumbs to Attack of Heart Trouble

Ferdinand Estenfelder, aged 53 years, who has been a resident of Charleroi since the earliest history of the town, died at 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening at his home on Mead-aw avenue. His wife, one son, Frederick, four daughters, Misses Anna, Katherine, Marie and Johanna at home and Mrs. A. A. McDonald a daughter at Monongahela survive. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon with services at 1:30 o'clock at St. Jerome's Catholic church. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Mr. Estenfelder has been ill for some weeks. His death was directly due to heart trouble. He was an insurance agent and was well known along the Monongahela valley. He was a member of the German Mutual Beneficial Association, the Monongahela Turn Verein and the Loyal Order of the Moose at Fredericktown.

Ascension Day Observed by McKean Commandery No. 80

REV. HACKETT PREACHES

Ascension Day services were held Thursday evening by McKean Commandery, No. 80 Knights Templar. Following a parade over the principal streets the uniformed and plumed knights listened to a sermon by Rev. J. T. Hackett at the First Presbyterian church.

The parade started at the Masonic hall on the corner of Fifth street. Its start was signalized by the beautiful strains of the Templar Hymn. "Onward-Christian Soldiers" rendered by a band. Dr. Edwin McKay was the chief marshal.

The impressive Templar program for Ascension day was carried out at the church. The First Presbyterian choir furnished the special music for the occasion. Solemnity was added to the occasion by the beautiful Ascension day psalm and collect read by the knights. The Templar Hymn was sung.

Rev. Hackett's subject of discussion was "As Far as Bethany." He showed the educational idea of life in leading up to the events of the resurrection of the Savior. Speaking of the great hope of the disciples, he referred to the Ascension as the complementary part of the resurrection.

The Ascension day service drew a large crowd to the church. The observance is one that the Knights Templar commanderies lay particular spend a few weeks with friends and

BENEFIT GAME ADDS TO PLAY GROUNDS FUND

Money Cleared Will Amount to Approximately $150--Playgrounds Auxiliary Thanks People For Their Help

Approximately $150 it is believed will be realized for the Charleroi playgrounds through the benefit baseball game played Thursday by the Charleroi Independents and the Indianapolis Federal league team. The money will be devoted to putting the playgrounds in shape and to the paying of help and instructors.

President J. B. Schafer of the Playgrounds Auxiliary stated this morning that not all the money had been received yet for the sale of tickets. A more complete report will be made later.

There were it is estimated close to 2,000 people at the game. Among these were many school children. The children on the whole were admitted free, because it was their benefit.

A result grand stand was crowded with tiny femininity and youthful masculinity, who came with their parents.

The attraction was arranged by Mr. Schafer and the Playgrounds Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary this morning expressed a vote of thanks to everyone who in any way helped to make the affair a success, to the managers of the two baseball teams and the players themselves particularly. The executive committee of the Playgrounds Auxiliary consists of the officers as follows: President John B. Schafer; vice president, J. D. Berryman; secretary, George W. Night; treasurer, E. F. Krahmer.

ASSAULT WOMAN, THEN ROBS STORE

Theives Commit Bold Daylight Robbery in Monessen, a Stone's Throw From Police Station--$75 is Secured

Within a stone's throw of the police station, in broad daylight, three men entered the music store of Keef-er & Robins in Monessen Thursday afternoon and after beating Mrs. W. S. Robins unconscious, placed her body behind a piano, forced open a safe and escaped with $75. Mrs. Robins was taking charge of the store during the absence of her husband.

One of the men walked to the counter, while the other two stood guard at the door. At a signal given by one of the men at the door, the man at the counter quickly turned and before the woman could scream, struck her, knocking her unconscious. The man then placed her body behind the piano, opened the safe and secured the money. Later a customer who entered the store discovered a foot sticking out from behind a piano. He found Mrs. Robins, still unconscious. A doctor revived her.

The police were notified.

Wednesday of this week closed the seventh consecutive term of school, conducted by Professor J. Leslie Roberts at Speers and if the unanimous voice of the people there counts for anything, he will be asked to accept the position again next fall. The achievements attained by Prof. Roberts during his administration are remarkable and the people are as a unit in their expressions of hope that he may see his way clear to return for the next term of school.

The professor will leave today for Somerset, where his wife and children preceded him a few weeks ago, but if he expected to "make his getaway" unnoticed he was certainly disappointed. He has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Kittle since the departure of his family and Mr. Kittle planned to give him a little surprise before he packed his grip. Invitations were quietly sent around the town and as a result "the mob" tramped out to the Kittle homestead Tuesday evening and without the formality of knocking, walked in upon the professor, who looked as though

INDIANAPOLIS WIN EASILY

Benefit Baseball Game Goes to Federal League Organization

With a lineup that it is believed will in many respects be similar to that which will face the Pittsburgh Philinos next Tuesday, the Indianapolis Federals had no trouble whatever defeating the Charleroi Independents Thursday afternoon in a game for the benefit of the Charleroi playgrounds.

The event was characterized in several different ways. In the beginning Manager Bill Phillips of the Indianapolis team and Manager Mathers of the Charleroi team were presented with a bat apiece by their admirers here. Master Hardy Albright, the son of Chief of Police C. W. Albright made the presentation, the two managers being called to the plate to receive the ribbon-bred Louisville Sluggers.

Three pitchers performed for the Federals, Reis, Bair and Taylor. Reis twirled hitless ball for three innings, only ten men facing him. Bair complained of a little soreness and stiffness when he went in the box and found a little difficulty acquiring control. Before his muscles were

Eleven Socialist Branches Represented at Big Gathering in Charleroi

International Labor Day was observed by eleven Socialist branches of the Monongahela valley in Charleroi Thursday evening. A parade was a feature. It was followed by speaking at Turner Hall. Speaking in turn was followed by dancing that lasted until 1 o'clock this morning.

With about 1,000 men in line the parade was over Lincoln avenue from Fifth street to Second, down Second to Fallowfield avenue, thence down Fallowfield to Ninth street, thence to McKean a venue and up McKean to Turner Hall.

Prof. Frank Midney, late of the faculty of Chicago University, was the chief speaker and enthused his audience by his excellent exposition of argument in favor of the cause referred to as the people's cause. Leroy Bruce of Allentown was the chairman of the meeting. Local speakers gave short talks. People were here from Brownsville to Riverview.

FEDERAL UNIFORMS ARE HERE

Phillips Players to Get Photographs Taken in New Duds

THREE MEN ARE LET GO

New uniforms arrived today for Bill Phillips Indianapolis Federals and will be worn for the first time on Saturday afternoon when the team appears against the Charleroi Independents. Before the game starts a group photograph of the players will be taken in their new uniforms.

This morning the team worked out at batting and fielding practice at the ball ground, and this afternoon a regular-vanigan game is being played. Phillips stated that he would decide upon his lineup and batting order for his opening game after Saturday.

Four clubs of the new "big" league, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Covington—which is Cincinnati—and Chicago secured their uniforms through a Springfield, Mass. sporting goods concern simply through the adoption of their ball. St. Louis and Pittsburgh had other plans for securing of their uniforms and did not get the benefit of the separate arrangement.

Three men who had been training with Phillips departed Thursday for Cleveland, to join the team of that city. They were A. Miller, an outfielder, and H. Miller, a pitcher of Pittsburgh and Kirsch a pitcher who

Coroner Heffran Arranging for Mine Disaster Investigation

Harry Vincent Claimed by Gorie Stokes, Dilly Rider to Still be in Workings

Monday, May 12, has been fixed as the time for the inquest into the deaths of the miners killed in the Cincinnati mine disaster last week. The hearing will be begun at 10 o'clock and the place will be Monongahela probably the Eagle's hall.

It is understood that it will not be disputed that the explosion at the Cincinnati mine at Courtney a week ago, when 96 lives—probably more—were snuffed out, was due to gas. Just where the explosion occurred in the mine and what set off the gas is not given out.

Coroner James T. Heffran was at his office Thursday. For two days he with District Attorney R. G. Miller and others has been in the ill-fated mine and made a thorough inspection of the workings.

Gorie Stokes, the dilly rider, who rode the dilly all through the rescue work at the Cincinnati mine, was in Monongahela Thursday and reported that Harry Vincent of VanVoorhis, a well known fire boss was missing.

Vincent was employed at the mine and was near the scene of the disaster. A visit to his room disclosed the fact that he has not been seen since the great calamity. Vincent is known to have worked on 20 entry where the heaviest of the explosion occurred.

S. T. Holmes of Finleyville, the aged colored man, who escaped from the ill fated mine and who is credited with saving the lives of about 30 miners, but whose son is reported among the missing was granted permission by the coal company to enter the mine in search of his son Howard. Mr. Holmes claims to know this mine well, having worked there for 22 years.

The work of cleaning up the mine is progressing rapidly and it is thought will be in shape to resume operations in a short time.

formerly played with East Liverpool. Miller showed particularly good form when he was here.

Swartling, the first baseman who signed with Phillips, but who was decured from reporting on account of the critical illness of his father in Pittsburgh, has been doing daily training work at home, and it is stated is in shape to get in the game at any time. With Swartling on hands for first base infield changes and perhaps outfield changes will be decided upon. Tiemyer, who has been stationed at the first sack will be the man shifted to another position. He is good anywhere and looks to be the hardest hitter on the team.

PLAIN BUSINESS

By issuing a mandate compelling
banks in which United States funds
are deposited to pay two per cent interest Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has secured an addition to the government revenues of approximately a million and a half of dollars. His action is simply that of any business man who would not think
for a moment of permitting a big
fund of idle capital to remain unproductive. This money is composed of the revenue receipts of the government, which accumulates and is deposited in various national banks.
The government could keep this
money in the vaults of the treasury
at Washington but it is better that it should be deposited in banks,
which are required to guarantee the safety of the deposits, in order that it may be used in the business of the country until needed by the government in the payment of the ordinary expenditures.

His plan of depositing the money was all right and proper, but in the past the government catered to special interests by giving banks these
of this money for nothing. The banks could loan this money for six
per cent, or at high rates of interest
for call loans in stock gambling deals
in Wall street, and reap a big profit
by special favors of the government.
It was good public policy to not permit the surplus government funds to lie idle, but it was bad business for the government not to exact any recompense from the banks specially favored with the use of the government funds with which they could make a big profit. Secretary Mc-Adoo has not only exacted a just recompense for the use of the government money, but he will deposit a
still greater amount in the banks,
taking approved local securities,
previous administrations would not accept.

It is becoming more and more apparent every day that all that is necessary for better government is simple honesty and business sense.

The people are paying entirely too much taxes for national and state administration which is wasteful, extravagant and has been expended too much in the past for the benefit of private interests.

ON THE JOB.

By using his influence to head off a movement to fix a date for adjournment before any of the important measures before the legislature are
enacted, Governor Tener has demonstrated that he is on the job in the interests of the people of the commonwealth. The governor has virtually pledged certain measures that are essential to the well-being of the public, and the attempt to hold up
these measures is decidedly hostile
not only to the administration, but
to public policy in general.

For many years constructive legislation has been blocked in the state legislature by simply delaying measures designed to benefit the people, fixing a date for adjournment, and
then letting the bills die in committee or emasculating them after too late to make corrections. This is the game that the senate is trying
to work on the measures that Governor Tener is insistent on passing, but
not stand for any trickery. He will use every effort to hold the legislature in session until the measures he has pledged are passed and the implications are that he will have no trouble following to maintain his position.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

The prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by your druggist under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

PICKED UP IN PASSING SOCIETY AND PERSONAL

The May American Magazine contains a story by Henry Wallace Phillips in which a Spanish Don is made
to speak as follows:

"Why can it be that he, this automobile man shall push me from before him with a tattle? Is he Horn of Jericho? No, hombre! He is not!
He is merely the horn of too much plenty—the cornucopia—and I think
why it is that he must rush through
the air at sixty kilometer to the
hour is because he has the top of the head empty, and must push his face
through the wind very fast to venti-
late the cavity.
"Does he care who he kills? No!
Maybe it is a poor woman with the
washing. Maybe it is a strong man with shovels and pickles, trying to earn his daily bread. Maybe it is anybody!
What is it? 'Honk! Honk! Whoopu!' and these persons are in heaven!—we shall hope. He makes death ridiculous, and he makes the more ridiculous and most ridiculous, of all he makes himself. One might say this is prejudice. So perhaps, it is,
but what shall a man live for if not
for his prejudice?"

Fred C. Kelly, in his "Stories of Statesmen," in the Pittsburg Dispatch, says that Col. I. Roosevelt possesses a command and unheralded talent as an imitator. As he and his party were headed for New York to close the close of the campaign last fall his nephew, George Roosevelt, remarked that he would be glad to get back to the little old town in time to see the opening of the Metropolitan Opera House for the season.
The colonel shook his head. "Mrs.
Roosevelt persuades me to go to the grand opera about once a year," he remarked, and I might like it all right if it didn't take them so long to get to the little old town in time to see the opening of the Metropolitan Opera House for the season.

remarked, and I might like it all right if it didn't take them so long

And the colonel went on to imitate
just how they would do it. Those who heard him declare that imitations like
he can do would be worth eight bits
of any vaudeville-goer's money.

he was undecided as to where this
gang of "brigands" came from. The professor's natural ability however
soon brought him to realize just what
the invasion really meant, and it was then he sprang to his feet and gave a joyous welcome to the unexpected visitors.

It was not long until all were made to feel at home. The house resounded with music and laughter inter-persed with anecdotes by people who could tell them and in this way the
time flew until at 10 o'clock when
the surprise was turned the other
way. The company was respectfully asked to leave the room, as they were wanted in another part of the house.
Wondering, they obeyed, and as they reached the large dining room they stopped, wide eyed and open mouthed
at the picture that lay before them.
Two large tables weighted down
with all good things to eat, the aroma
of rich coffee pervading the air and a pleasant invitation from the hostess, Mrs. Kittle and her assistant, Miss Luella Beazell to partake of these viands, came as a second surprise of the evening.

After all were seated at the tables
C. K. Chalfant arose and announced that he would like to say a few words prior to the feasting and then in his usual capable manner, explained the purpose of the visit, closing with a well deserved eulogy of the professor and presenting him on behalf of his friends with a beautiful mountain pen. The professor in acceptance, expressing his appreciation of the
visit, and a hope that he would see them all again before long. The
party as a whole was a success, the visitors did not leave until nearly
midnight and if John Kittle ever
had any doubts about his ability to engineer a stag party he is now justified in casting them aside.

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI

The story of "Tigris," an elaborate criminal, was most thrillingly told in a four-part Italia film at the Coyle theatre this week and it was most distinctively the topline of the whole repertoire. "Tigris," a master criminal, with a desperate gang at his command and thoroughness of organization in crime, defies all law and order, and challenges a noted detective to run him down. The scenes are a continual series of the matching of wits between the daring criminal and the clever detective, followed by some most desperate situations in the underworld and some hairbreadth escapes. It was most sensational. Another striking feature in the Coyle's repertoire this week was "Taps," a two reel Bison, picturing the narrative of a civil war veteran, how his cowardly brother gave him, promotion and the love of a girl at his expense. Perhaps no other war picture showed such elaborate field encounters, or such actual and vigorous fighting as this one. It was a succession of what appeared to be most realistic fighting. There was also an unusual galaxy of good motion picture dramas some of them rich in humor in the regular service of the week. Following "Tigris" on Wednesday was a succession of big features each in three parts, "Budford's Hope" on Thursday, "The Black Chancellor" Friday, ending with "A Traitor to His Country" on Saturday.

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI

One of the best vaudeville bookings of the season is on at the Palace Theatre this week, opening Thursday for the balance of the week with a matinee on Saturday. The whole three acts are clean and entertaining and of a higher type of humor than is usually seen in vaudeville. Lowell B. Drew & Co., present a most unique act. The "company" is composed of Drew and a charming young woman, who depict some exceedingly clever and amusing scenes in a drug store, where with special properties and an odd and original sketch, keep something new going during the entire performance. Lindsay and Hewett, give singing and dancing sketches, with pianologues by Miss Hewett of a unique nature. Lindsay does some grotesque dancing and the two perform cleverly and gracefully in a dual dancing act. Miss Annetta Julian, a charming and capable soubrette, sings Irish songs with a delightful and original flavor, that won the approval of the audience from the very start. Incidentally, Miss Julian showed some stunning costumes in her different songs. All through this week's repertoire is probably the best balanced bill that has been presented thus far since the opening of vaudeville at the Palace. The picture service in addition to the vaudeville is the same high grade as usual and is changed nightly.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI

Starting off with two big features Monday, the Star Theatre had an unusually good repertoire this week. Monday's bill was composed of "From Sing Sing to Liberty," showing the life and experiences of a convict in the noted New York prison, and "The Man From the Outside," another three reel Reliance film. These two three reel features were highly appreciated by the audiences. "His Heroine," "Father's Finish," a split reel, with some splendid scenery of American Canyons, "Brass Buttons," a comic, were other pleasing features. A splendid Kay Bee, a civil war picture in two reels, "The Lost Dispatch," was also a feature. This was a winner, as it was produced by the 101 Ranch outfit, a fine body of trained horsemen and actors. The Mutual Weekly, which showed President Wilson's inauguration, along with the latest Paris fashions and the other scenes of public events that are attracting attention, was in the repertoire. Among other leading dramas were "The Transgression of Manuel," "Sleuths at the Floral Parade," "Her Neighbor," "Jocular Winds" and "Impetuous Jim." For Saturday Manager Cowan has booked "Doll and the Devil," "The Bitter Bitten," and "Strong Revenge."

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG

The Grand's program for the week beginning Monday afternoon, May 5, is a characteristically high and varied one. There are several European features in the roster. Among the latter is an eccentric English character comedian called Chris Richards, who is creating a considerable furor in the land of his Uncle Samuel. Mr. Richards' position among the funniest of England's funny men is assured by the absurdity of his physical actions the nobility of his facial expressions and the cleverness of his songs.

An unusual attractive playlet written by Una Clayton and entitled "Just Half Way," will be presented by Roland West with Allan Dinehart and Ana Herriage interpreting it. It is a story set amid pleasant pastoral precincts overlooking the Hudson. Ben Deely, the well-known composer of popular ditties, will be aided by Marie Wayne and Emmett Briscoe in the fun of a skit called "The New Bell Boy." Playgoers will be happy to know that Hilda Hawthorne is in the bill. This dainty young woman is a ventriloquist and singing comedienne of undoubted talents. The Three Du-For Boyd, who come direct from the Alhambra, London, will show America what English dancers can do in the poetry of motion. Frank and Joe Wilson, known as Wilson Brothers, will have an act called "Go Out" which is built for laughing purposes only. The ultimate of danger is reached by the Flying Martins in their speedy act on the double trapeze. A variety of other attractions will complete the Grand's program.

We Put the "I" in Printing

INNUMERABLE opportunities await the wise man who incorporates brains in his printing.

INDIVIDUALITY can be as well expressed in printed matter as in clothes.

IDEAS that impel attention and improve business are always best presented in good ink work.

IMPORTANT communications imbued with that intangible something which incites interest, initiates investigations, and instigates immediate inquiries, demand immaculate printing.

INK imagination is not an innovation in this print shop. Ideals in illuminative making and incisive impression are high here, but our imprint does not increase the inexpensiveness of our product.

IDENTIFY yourself with the printer who strives to merit your implicit confidence.

DANGERS FROM GRIP

Lies in the Cough and Weak, Worn Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grip from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol our delicious liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Crabill of Strasburg, Va., says: "Grippe left me weak, run down and with a severe cough from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and well again and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money. Piper Bros. Druggists.
